

Washington -- U.S. Rep. John W. Olver today announced that the town of Ashfield will receive

“This new funding will make the wastewater treatment facility more efficient by improving the

"I am glad to have played a role in expediting the EPA's funds for this important project," Olver

The three year old facility was built using experimental solar aquatic technology. For various reasons

The availability of additional funding was based on the town's effort to execute the required corrective

Olver said, “When the federal government mandates new environmental standards than they

In 1995, Olver helped the town of Ashfield receive a $1.3 million grant and $1.6 million loan to

###